SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

The Academy Street School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards. This School-Parent Compact has been developed with available input from all Title I Parents, and reflects the needs and concerns specific to the stakeholders of the Academy Street School.

This school-parent compact is in effect during the 2017-2018 academic year, and shall be evaluated on an ongoing basis to insure maximum effectiveness. This compact is part of the school's written parental involvement policy developed by the school and parents.

School Responsibilities

The Academy Street School will:

- 1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

Academy Street School will provide an optimum educational experience for all students, creating a passion for learning and encouraging all students to perform to their highest academic potential while promoting self expression, cooperation, and respect for others. This shall be accomplished via a seamless integration of the New Jersey Student Learning Standards (NJSLS) into the district curriculum and infusing the most current pedagogical practices and technology into the fabric of the classroom environment. Academy Street School will provide parents with assistance in understanding the NJSLS and State assessments through a series of parental involvement activities held throughout the course of the year. As identified when developing the school's school-wide plan, data revealed that Reading / Language Arts were areas in need of focus. Parent involvement activities will be centered around this focus. Through the combined efforts of staff, parents and students, an optimal and productive learning environment will be established through which students will achieve their maximum potential. Parents will supervise their child's participation on school purchased websites on a nightly basis as their contribution to Making Every Day Awesome.

- 2. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences in the development of this agreement were held on 9/29/2010 and 6/7/2011. The Parent Advisory Council meetings for the 2017-2018 academic year will be held on 9/29/2017 at 8:30 AM and at 8:30 AM on a later date in the Spring. Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held on October 19, 20, 21, 22, of 2017, and as needed throughout the school year.

During school/grade level orientation programs, Back to School Nights, in our school menu-grams and in home/school communications parents are urged to contact the school office to arrange a meeting with the teacher whenever it is believed that a conference would be necessary or helpful. All staff members, including teachers, Principal, Vice Principal, Nurse and special area teachers are available for conferences with parents upon requested. Parent Teacher Conferences are held each year in the fall. At this time parents may choose a day or evening appointment time to discuss their child's academic progress or concerns. If a parent is unable to meet during this time, teachers will reschedule the appointment for a more mutually agreeable time or suggest a phone conference. For parents of students in grades K-2, Academy Street School will host its annual literacy event that coincides with Dr. Seuss's birthday.

The Academy Street School faculty and administrators encourage frequent meetings between parents and teachers, believing that this is the single most effective way to help students achieve their potential. Communication between home and school minimizes students' difficulties and enhances the quality of the education that can result from total mutual understanding.

- 3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:

Pre- Kindergarten and Kindergarten children receive progress reports (report cards) in January, April and June. Students in grades first through sixth receive report cards in November, January, April and June. In addition, mid-marking period progress reports are sent to parents if deemed necessary by the teacher or if a child is in danger of failing a subject. Also, if the teacher and parent feel that a weekly progress report would be helpful to ensure academic success, one would be sent home each week.

- 4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:

If a parent would like to speak with a specific staff member, teachers are available for consultation before and after school or during a teacher's prep period at mutually agreeable times. In addition, parents may choose to contact a staff by email or telephone to discuss their concerns. All teachers and administrators are linked to the Academy Street School homepage for easy parent access. Academy Street School's telephone number, as well as the email addresses for the principal and vice principal are cited on all communications sent home from the school such as menu-grams, school letters/notifications etc. for parent reference.

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

During American Education Week each year parents may visit their child's classroom for an extended period of time to observe lessons across the curriculum. During Read Across America Week parents can volunteer to read to the elementary classes. In addition, various grade levels have extended invitations to parents to observe student presentations, assist in arts and craft projects, or to visit the classroom as a guest lecturer to inform the students about their respective careers or present a special program. Also, throughout the year in addition to the school concerts, each homeroom (K-2) presents a short morning program based upon seasonal or academic units of study to which parents are invited. The PTA sponsors two book fairs a year and hosts several family events. Parents are invited to participate in our Title I parent education offerings.

6. Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's parental involvement policy, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
7. Involve parents in the joint development of any school-wide program plan, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
8. Hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school's participation in Title I, Part A programs, and to explain the Title I, Part A requirements, and the right of parents to be involved in Title I, Part A programs. The school will convene the meeting at a convenient time to parents, and will offer a flexible number of additional parental involvement meetings, such as in the morning or evening, so that as many parents as possible are able to attend. The school will invite to this meeting all parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs (participating students), and will encourage them to attend.
9. Provide information to parents of participating students in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon the request of parents with disabilities, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that parents can understand.
10. On the request of parents, provide opportunities for regular meetings for parents to formulate suggestions, and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children. The school will respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.
11. Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the State assessment in at least math, language arts and reading.
